2013 John Molson MBA Case Writing Competition

Uwdo kukqp 'F gcf rkp g < Qevqdg t '3. '4234

Lead and compete in the John Molson MBA Case Writing Competition. We are pleased to invite submissions of original business case studies, either in English or French. The purpose of the Competition is to generate unpublished and unused case studies to be used during the 2013 John Molson MBA International Case Competition (“MBA-ICC”). The cases submitted will only be used for this purpose and will be released to the case writers immediately after the MBA-ICC, which ends January 11th, 2013. The submitted cases used during the MBA-ICC will be translated into either English or French, as the case may be, and the translated versions will also be remitted to the case writer.

APPLICANTS <sup>1</sup>

Faculty members and individuals with a graduate business degree are eligible to submit cases for the Competition.

REQUIREMENTS

Aimed at students in MBA programs, the cases and associated material must:

- concentrate in the area of Strategic Management with specific issues in either operations, mergers/acquisitions, diversification, finance, globalization, implementation, entrepreneurship, HR, ethics, governance or other specific areas in any size of enterprise or non-profit sector
- have a maximum of 20 pages of narrative text with a limit of 250 words per page, double spaced (maximum 5000 words total) and no more than 30 pages when including financial and other appendices (case text is not permitted in appendices)
- be based on either field research or research from secondary sources and should describe a recent business situation in an actual organization. Some details may be altered slightly if necessary to obtain authorization from the organization in question to release the case,
- be written in English or French
- include a brief teaching note explaining the key issues and the teaching objectives
- and be submitted in electronic format (.doc or .docx file)

PRIZES & INCENTIVES (in Canadian Dollars)

- The case writer judged to have submitted the best case will receive a prize of $10,000, and will also be invited as a guest of the MBA-ICC to attend the final presentation and the closing banquet at which he/she will receive the first place prize ($2,000 maximum allotted for travel expenses).
- The case writers of the cases judged to be second and third best will be awarded $5,000 and $3,000 respectively.
- Case writers of all other cases used during the MBA-ICC will each be awarded $1,000.
- The first prize winner will be notified by December 6th, 2012. Other winners will be notified during the week of January 6th, 2013.
- In the event of having more than one author for a particular case, the prize money will be shared equally among all the winners.

SUBMISSION OF ENTRIES

Cases must be submitted no later than October 1st, 2012 with the Entry Form, the Statement of Originality and, where necessary, the Letter of Authorization (copies of which are enclosed). A case will not be eligible unless accompanied by this supporting documentation, which should also be submitted in electronic format (preferably scanned).

COMPETITION JUDGES

The selection committee will be composed of executives from the MBA-ICC Advisory Board, MBA-ICC lead judges, and John Molson School of Business faculty members.

The selection committee’s decisions are final.

<sup>1</sup> Anyone involved with the training, coaching, and other preparation of students participating in the John Molson MBA-ICC is not eligible.
